Principal's Newsletter - September 11, 2008

As we remember the tragedy on this day seven years ago, let's all say a prayer for peace and understanding in the world. Let's remember those who perished senselessly and those that are still recovering from the effects of the event. Our Back To School Barbecue today will give us an opportunity to gather and remember the innocent who perished and the many public servants who valiantly tried to help them.

1. Tonight: Back to School Barbecue at 5pm on the playground. Tickets are $8 for adults and $5 for children. All proceeds go toward helping to pay for busses for your child's school trips. By attending the barbecue you are helping yourself.
2. Over the summer we had several volunteers working on the landscaping between the convent and the school. A huge THANK YOU to the following: Victor, Nicholas, Jennifer and Melissa Obrizan, Drew and Robert Denton, Jenna, Corynn and Samantha Ramos, their moms and Paul Obrizan.
3. This past Tuesday, the Instant Alert system notified most of the parents of the test. I need to go through the reports and identify which families were not notified. I will be doing more tests in the future.
4. Chimeteers will continue practices next week on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday for their performance at the parish centennial banquet.
5. All those students who took part in Ukrainian Dance last year will practice tomorrow and next Friday for their performance at the Centennial banquet. Andriy will determine which age groups are actually going to perform. Sneakers and gym uniform for the dancers tomorrow, Friday the 12th.
6. The first Sodality meeting for girls in grades 3 - 8 will be held on Tuesday, Sept 16 from 3 to 4 pm.
7. Drama (for grades 6 - 8) will begin on Sept 24.
8. The Scholastic Book Fair will take place Sept 29 through Oct 2. Monday, Sept 29 the students will browse and window shop, then actually purchase items Tue through Thur.
9. Please go Henkelhelps.com and nominate our school for a possible grant of $25,000. As they say, you have to be in it, to win it.

Peace,
Mr. S
