My Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

You will recall that our Archieparchial Sobor held in the fall of 2008 had as its theme the disciples asking Jesus to show them 'the way', for they did not understand where they were going. Great Lent affords you and me an exceptional opportunity to discover 'the way'. Our fasting, increased almsgiving, and more fervent prayer open our heart and mind to the voice of God. We are led to be unsettled and to be not content with our present journey in life. We become restless to know God and His ways for you, for me, for others, for our community, and for His holy Church. This is challenging and yet, exciting, as Jesus calls us to new life. A truly blessed Lenten journey ought to disturb us and call us to renewal, even an upheaval in our manner of daily life. My prayer and my hope for you is that you allow for the Grace of God to lead you in the renewal of your baptismal call to go forth and evangelize. Do it knowing that Jesus is with you always! (Mt. 28:20) Choose to journey with others by regularly participating in the Lenten services in your parish, so that you may hear the voice of God. Open your mind and heart to hear God's unique message to YOU!
