SHROUD OF TURIN EXHIBITION

Archbishop Stefan has procured an official replica of the Shroud of Turin for display at our Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Philadelphia. The 14'X 3' Shroud replica will be on exhibition at the Cathedral from February 21, 2010 - June 29th, 2010.

The Exhibit will begin with vespers at 5:00PM at the Cathedral on the First Sunday of the Great Fast, February 21, 2010. Clergy and parishioners are invited to join with us and to have representatives bring crosses, icons, or plaschanytsias from the parishes for this opening Procession for the Sunday of Orthodoxy.

Please use this opportunity to join with us, especially during this season of the Great Fast, in spreading the word of Jesus' love for us in the Shroud story. Please consider organizing groups from the parish and community. The Cathedral will be opened Tuesday and Thursday from 1:00PM- 6:00PM, Saturday from 11:00AM-5:30PM and Sunday from 8:00AM-3:00PM. Tours are available of the Cathedral, Museum and Shroud exhibition during this time. There is no fee for the exhibits. Contact Archpriest Daniel Troyan at the Shroud Office at 215-922-2917. or visit our website www.philashroud.org

See the flyer in the church vestibule for information regarding the SHROUD OF TURIN (Available in English and Ukrainian).

Parish Youth Group

Our youth group is organizing a fundraising event planned for April, which will benefit Chernobyl Children's Project International. This event will feature "Voices from Chornobyl," a short series of monologues and dialogues from survivors of the accident and their loved ones. The play is emotional and also education. The youth group is looking for members of our parish to take part in this project. If you are interested in participating - acting or otherwise - there will be an introductory meeting on Saturday, Feb 6, at 6 pm in the church basement.

If you are unable to attend, or for more information, please call Anna Lawrence at 732-742-0621.

Holy Name Society will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 2 at 8 PM in the church hall.
