SHROUD OF TURIN EXHIBITION

The Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral will host an exhibition of an authentic replica of The Shroud of Turin. This is the 9th replica sanctioned by the Vatican. Archbishop Stefan has been able to procure this relic for display at our Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Philadelphia. The Shroud replica will be on exhibition at the Cathedral from February 21, 2010 - June 29th, 2010. The Exhibit will begin with vespers at 5:00 PM at the Cathedral on the First Sunday of the Great Fast, February 21, 2010.

Our Parishioner In Ukraine

Anna Lawrence is currently in Kharkiv, Ukraine, as part of a team for Chernobyl Children's Project International (CCPI). CCPI has identified Kharkiv as an area of concern because of the amount of children needing cardiac surgery. Anna (the only Ukrainian in the group) has joined this volunteer group of doctors and nurses to document the mission with pictures, videos, and articles. Please keep them in your prayers as they continue this work. You can visit the Chernobyl Children's Project International's website to learn more about this charitable organization.
