Religious Education For Children

Sunday catechism classes in preparation for First Penance and First Solemn Holy Communion will begin on Sunday October 14. Classes will be held in the school from 10am to 11am. This is a two year program. Children baptized at a church other than Assumption Catholic Church, need to bring a copy of their Baptism Certificate.

Liturgy Requests

We ask that if you have dates on which you would like a liturgy offered that you make those requests as early as possible. The Mass Schedule Book for 2013 will not be available until November 1, 2012. Requests for liturgy dates will be assigned in the order in which they are received. Contact the rectory office to make your requests; call after Nov. 1 for 2013 liturgies.

Parish Pastoral Council

The Parish Pastoral Council meets periodically in the church hall to discuss and plan parish business. The task assigned to the pastoral council is to assist the pastor with their advice and practical cooperation in matters pertinent to the pastoral work in the parish. I would like to thank the council members who served the parish for the past two years. Please know that I am grateful to each one of you, who took the time to express your opinions, whether praises or concerns. In the month of December, I will elect a couple of new people for the pastoral council and submit their names for the approval to the Archbishop Stefan. Some old members from the council will be asked to continue to serve on the council, but I will also add new people every so often, to give as many parishioners as possible the opportunity to serve

First Friday Sick Calls

The sick and aged of the parish will be visited this Friday, Oct. 5, following the morning liturgy. If you know of someone who cannot attend church and would like to receive the sacraments at home, call the rectory at 732-826-0767.

Sr. Yosaphata’s 50th Anniversary of Religious Profession

On Sunday, December 2nd, 2012 at our parish we will celebrate a Divine Liturgy in thanksgiving for Sr. Yosaphata’s 50th Anniversary of Religious Profession as a Missionary Sister of Mother of God. Sister Yosaphata will renew her religious vows at the Liturgy celebrated by Metropolitan-Archbishop Stefan Soroka. On that day, there will be only one Liturgy at 10:00 am followed by a buffet banquet at the school hall.

Tickets for the banquet will be $10 per person, and they may be purchased from the rectory or school office by filling out the form that will be attached to the church bulletin in October. Please join our parish for this joyous occasion of Sister’s Yosaphata commitment to God and our Church.

Cemetery News

The days are getting shorter, the leaves are starting to fall, the weather is getting cooler and our thoughts turn to cleaning and sprucing up and preparing for winter. We should not neglect our cemetery! Those who have loved ones interred in our cemetery should take a trip to Assumption Cemetery and clean up the dead flowers and debris that has accumulated from your summer planting. Removing the debris, dead flowers, artificial flowers, etc. will help our groundskeeper with his initial task of fertilizing and lawn cutting early next spring and make it much easier for him to trim around the headstones later in the year. All of this is done to make your cemetery look clean and beautiful.

Another deterrent to our cemetery’s appearance is the large amount of overgrown shrubs, bushes, and small trees that are placed in front of the memorial stones. Not only do they detract from the appearance of the cemetery; they impede the work of the grounds-keeper from trimming neatly around your loved ones resting place. Some shrubs, bushes, and trees are so overgrown that you cannot identify the marker unless you pull back the branches. If these items are not properly and neatly maintained, they will be removed next year. Remember this is your cemetery. We are certain that all of us want a neat and clean place for the repose of the remains of our loved ones. Please make every effort to help us maintain the cemetery grounds.

Last Sunday’s Bulletin

If you haven’t yet picked up last Sunday’s bulletin, it is available on the table in the church vestibule or on our website:
