Parish Cemetery Policy

Recently His Grace, Metropolitan-Archbishop Stefan Soroka issued a new policy and regulations regarding Archdiocesan cemeteries. This new policy applies to our parish. His Grace said, that some practices have become problematic for the appearance and maintenance of our cemeteries. Some people have installed copings in front of monuments, placed candles and planted flowers or even small trees in front of the monuments. Some plants are now major size bushes uprooting monuments. While some people provide care for these areas, more than two thirds are completely neglected. People have unjustifiably come to expect the cemetery staff to clean and maintain these areas, adding considerably to maintenance costs. Numerous complaints are received as to the appearance of the cemetery because of the unsightly appearance of the neglected areas. More important, the copings installed by people without permission expose these people and the cemetery to great risk for liability claims. Such copings are not allowed at other cemeteries.

Therefore, in order to create safe and uniform conditions, all copings (or stones, bricks or fences), plantings of any kind (including flowers) and all lamps or similar objects placed in front, behind or on the sides of monuments must be removed no later than February 1, 2014. Lamps, vases, etc. may only be placed on the base of a monument--they cannot be left on the ground. After February 1, 2014, our cemetery staff is instructed to remove any items that continue to remain in the ground and obstruct the areas around the monuments. These items will be discarded. The areas will be filled in with earth and grass planted by staff. The cemetery will then reflect the beauty and order we all expect in our cemetery. Your complete compliance with this policy will be greatly appreciated. Thank you for your anticipated understanding and acceptance.

Generations of Faith Program

For the month of December, we are planning the sixth "Generations of Faith," our parish religious education program. If you have not yet participated or are new to Assumption Church, GOF, as we like to call it, brings together parishioners of all ages to learn more and often share what they know about their Catholic Faith. Families with children of all ages (young ones and teens) are welcome to participate. The GOF committee decided that our next session is scheduled for Sunday, December 1, 2013 after only one bilingual Divine Liturgy at 9:00 a.m. The theme for the next GOF program will be "God Is With Us" - "Z Namy Boh." The presentation will prepare the parish for the Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord, Christmas, by allowing the audience to dwell on the mystery of the Incarnation as revealed in Scriptures, the liturgical services and in a rich tradition. We will have two speakers, a good meal, discussion and a good time as one parish family. Please register for the program. The two sign-up sheets are in the church vestibule. If you speak English, please sign up on the English form.
