2nd Sunday of Lent -Sunday of St. Gregory Palamas

The city of Thessaloniki is known for its many Saints. One of them, the one to whom the Cathedral is dedicated to, is celebrated this Sunday. St. Gregory Palamas was Archbishop of Thessaloniki in the 14th century, and defended the Faith against Barlaam the Calabrian (who was against monasticism). He taught that divine grace is not created, but the uncreated energies of God are poured out throughout creation; otherwise, humanity could never have authentic communication with God. He reposed in the Lord in 1359. As we celebrated the Sunday of Orthodoxy last week, the Church decided to celebrate the memory of a man who was dedicated to the Faith and was one of its chief defenders at a time where heresy was threatening the Church. We also read the Gospel of Christ healing and forgiving the sins of the paralytic. We see in this Gospel reading that Christ is not only a man, but the God-Man who came to save us from corruption. He is the one to forgive our sins, and to bring us back to Paradise.

ASK THE PASTOR:

A number of the prayers that are said during Lent refer to giving alms. In our day, when we contribute to the church all year long are these prayers really necessary?

Yes, the reason for these prayers is very simple. It is very important that we make some personal contribution to help out those who are less fortunate than us. The giving of alms is a very worthwhile thing to do. The giving of alms, in the form of money, food, etc. during the Lenten season forces me to recognize that I have been particularly blessed by God if I am in a position to help others. It is not because of my own deeds that I was born in a family where I had everything that I needed. Whenever I help others, I realize that they are just like me, except I happen to have something they do not. It may be giving someone some money, or it may be changing a flat tire or shoveling the snow off the steps, but whenever I do something for someone else, it helps me see more clearly that we are all in the same position in the eyes of God. Some of these things can be challenging, but it is a challenge that makes our faith something living and dynamic.
