October Bulletins

You'll notice that our bulletin inserts in October are printed on PINK paper. October is Breast Cancer Month and to remind us of our prayerful support, we're going pink! There are also other practical ways to show your support:

1. By researching this phenomenon of our day - what are the causes, how to prevent this (start at sites like: www.bcpinstitute.org)
2. By donating to help cancer research!

Perhaps concerned women might consider scheduling an appointment for a safe screening to detect early signs.

Last Sunday's Bulletin

If you haven't yet picked up last Sunday's bulletin, it is available in the church hall, or on our website:

www.assumptioncatholicchurch.net

BINGO VOLUNTEERS are needed for Wednesday bingo. If you can help out from 6:30 to 9:30 PM on Wednesday evenings, please contact Fr. Ivan.

"Why I Come To Church" DVD

A pastor wanted to visit one of his parishioners who suddenly stopped coming to church. He was concerned for him, "This is not like Jim. He always loved to be in church, sang in our choir and served as a parish trustee."

When the pastor arrived and rang the bell, Jim opened the door quietly, saying not a single word, but motioned with his hand to enter and sit with him by the fireplace. They sat down and watched as the wood logs were burning. Suddenly, a small piece broke off of a log and flew away from the fire. The piece continued to burn for a few short moments but then it stopped and got cold. The pastor got up from his chair, picked up the piece of the now cold wood and put it back into the fire where it instantly started to burn again. After a short time, the pastor left the home.

The following Sunday the pastor was thrilled to see a familiar face. Jim was back in church. After the service, Jim came up to his pastor and said, "Thank you, Father, for visiting me. I saw what you did with the piece of wood. I too turned cold and unhappy after I left the church. I didn't realize how much I missed my parish. I am overjoyed to be back in church and re-ignited with my faith."

Consider visiting someone you know who may appreciate seeing the DVD, or someone who may not be going to church lately. Give them a call. See how they are doing. Let them know that you not only miss them but also care enough to see if everything is okay. A kind word can go a long way. Pick up a DVD in the vestibule and give them a copy. Invite them for service, activities and socials in our parish. They may one day thank you like Jim.
