Church Funnies

An honest man was being tailgated by a stressed out woman on a busy boulevard. Suddenly, the light turned yellow just in front of him. He did the right thing, stopping at the crosswalk, even though he could have beaten the red light by accelerating through the intersection.

The tailgating woman hit the roof, and the horn, screaming in frustration as she missed her chance to get through the intersection. As she was still in mid-rant, she heard a tap on her window and looked up into the face of a very serious police officer. The officer ordered her to exit her car with her hands up. He took her to the police station where she was searched, finger-printed, and photographed, and then placed in a holding cell.

After a couple of hours, a policeman approached the cell and opened the door. She was escorted back to the booking desk where the arresting officer was waiting with her personal effects.

He said, "I'm very sorry for this mistake. You see, I pulled up behind your car while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you, and cussing a blue streak at him. I noticed the 'Choose Life' license plate holder, the 'What Would Jesus Do?' bumper sticker, the 'Follow Me to Sunday School' bumper sticker, and the chrome-plated Christian fish emblem on the trunk. Naturally, I assumed you had stolen the car!"

Liturgy Schedule

On Sunday, Sept. 4, 2016 we will return to our regular Liturgy Schedule, Sundays at 9:00 AM and 11:30 AM.

CHRIST OUR PASCHA,The Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic.

The official English translation of the Ukrainian Catholic Church's catechism, Christ Our Pascha, is finally available. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia currently has the book on sale for $25. The Ukrainian Catholic Church is the first of the Eastern Catholic Churches to publish its own catechism, Christ our Pascha. The catechism is not dependent upon the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1992), like all of the other catechisms published by various national bishops conferences throughout the Catholic World. Its structure is entirely different and it is a thoroughly Eastern text. This is a concrete manifestation of the fact that the Second Vatican Council recognized that the Eastern Catholic Churches have their own theological, liturgical, spiritual and canonical traditions that are legitimately Catholic, but non-Roman. Christ Our Pascha was published in Ukrainian in 2011 and promulgated by Patriarch Sviatoslav. Since then, a second, revised edition has appeared. The English translation was done under the supervision of a committee of bishops who were familiar with both the Ukrainian and English languages and the theological terminology of the Eastern Churches. If you would like a copy of the Catechism please see Fr. Ivan or call the rectory to order. The cost is $25. Please remit cash or checks payable to Assumption Church.

"Freedom or Death!" documentary film

On Sunday, September 11, 2016 after Ukrainian Liturgy at 10:30 a.m. in our church hall, the American filmmaker of Ukrainian origin Damien Kolody will present to our parishioners and guests the documentary film "Freedom or Death" about the events on the Maidan during the Revolution of Dignity. Damien Kolody ventures to the frontline of the rebels to explore its origins and its potential consequences for the people of Ukraine. His film exposes the shocking truths behind this important moment of European history. This film documents the chronology of recent events, how peaceful pro European demonstrations have escalated into Ukraine's current military conflict with Russia. Many people in the West have a vague understanding about these events. "Freedom or Death" is designed and geared towards an English speaking audience. The film in both languages is free and the director will personally present a picture, and answer the questions after the show.

25th Ukrainian Independence Day Celebration

The Ukrainian-American community of Perth Amboy, NJ celebrated the 25th anniversary of Ukraine's independence on Wednesday, August 24, 2016 with a celebration of the Moleben to the Blessed Mother of God at the church followed by a flag-raising ceremony and the singing of the Ukrainian national anthem in front of the parish school. The day's speakers, Roman Wernyj underscored Ukraine's achievements in a short period of Ukrainian independence and Olga Lytvyn spoke eloquently of the importance of this day for every Ukrainian living in the USA. The parish youth joined the festivities by planting an oak tree outside the school to commemorate the 25th Anniversary. Thanks to all who participated.
