It will be a joyous day for all.

Today: Feast of Pentecost

In both Scripture readings today, we see how the coming of the Holy Spirit of God causes disturbance and even a degree of chaos. In Acts, we witness the Apostles - filled with the Holy Spirit - suddenly speaking in a variety of languages.

They baffled those who witnessed the event, and undoubtedly surprised themselves as well. In the Gospel of John, we find the people bewildered in their attempt to determine who exactly Jesus was, the manner in which He spoke, and the meaning of His presence among them. As the bearer of the Holy Spirit, Jesus' unsettling presence confronted and challenged the status quo of Pharisees and their officers.

As the Holy Spirit comes as "in fire and a mighty wind" to disturb the comfortable and to comfort the disturbed, so Jesus confronts us with the very presence of the Thrice Holy God and implants in our fragile hearts the gift of faith, the energy of hope, and the peace of genuine love. He unsettles - and pierces through - our complacency when we slip into "Christian mediocrity," when the spiritual fire dwindles, our faith turns anemic, and we grow tired of the rigors of being a disciple. The Holy Spirit of God comes to shake us from our stupor and to inspire us, like the Apostles, to have courage, to boldly witness the Gospel, and to place ourselves confidently in the hands of the merciful God who simply desires to draw us into loving intimacy with Him. This is the meaning of Holy Pentecost.

Divine Liturgy Intentions

It is a holy act to remember individuals in Divine Liturgies. One Sunday Divine Liturgy is always for the People of the Parish but other days are open. We remember our living loved ones on their birthdays, baptismal anniversaries, wedding anniversaries, health needs and indeed any other intention. For our deceased family and friends, we should remember them on the anniversaries of their death as well as any other time we wish. Offertory stipends are traditionally given to the priest for these services but no one is ever denied a Divine Liturgy intention based on a stipend. To pray for one another is a direct teaching of Our Lord and His holy church. "Pray for those who love us and pray for those who hate us." See Fr. Ivan for any scheduling of Divine Liturgy intentions or call the parish office.
