School News
This week, Assumption School faculty and staff gathered for the annual End-of-Year Luncheon, where they enjoyed a delicious meal, celebrated important milestones, and shared a bittersweet “goodbye” with those who will not be returning to our school next school year. ACS is proud to announce Mrs. Pickering’s retirement from the classroom after more than 30 years as a Catholic school educator! We are thrilled that she will continue to be part of our community next year as Mrs. Shumny’s part-time Dean of Students.
Each year, our pastor and school administrator, Fr. Ivan, along with Principal Mrs. Shumny, invites the teachers to this special luncheon so we can come together, reflect on the year, and recognize the incredible teamwork and dedication that made it such a success.

Parish Youth
This Thursday, our parish youth group—12 pilgrims accompanied by our 3 religious sisters, Mother Veronica, Sr. Svitanku, and Sr. Trijtsi—set out in four cars on a cross-country journey to the Seventh All-American Youth Pilgrimage. The event will take place from June 12-15, 2025, at Pokrova Ukrainian Catholic Church in Parma, Ohio.
Before departing, the group gathered in the chapel of the Sisters Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matará with Fr. Ivan to celebrate a Moleben to Christ the Lover of Mankind. With hearts full of hope and prayer, they embarked on what promises to be a life-changing pilgrimage during this Jubilee Year of Hope—a time to renew their faith, deepen their relationship with Christ, and witness the beautiful universality of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in the United States.
Let us walk together in faith and joy with our youth, and keep them in our prayers for a safe and grace-filled journey.

~ 3 ДНЕМ НАРОДЖЕННЯ - HAPPY BIRTHDAY to all those who will celebrated their birthdays this month. May the Lord Our God continue to bless you abundantly and the Holy Mother of God protects you at all times. Многая Літа!
